Most respected Sir,

The humble memorialist Mohamed Sheriff 'Koraukan' Gumbuz of Bashtar Mohalla most respectfully begs to submit the facts:—.

On the 11th of July 1907 he petitioned your Honours to accept his resignation - along with a Doctor's certificate to the effect that he is unfit for every kind of work and to grant him Rs 1000 three for - Diya ul Ahsan Chak only funds be made him to maintain himself. He is very old and has no other relatives to look after him. Sometime back there was a meeting of the Trustees of the above funds and when his petition was placed before them, the Nazim informed the members that the memorialist was still in service, since the Nazim did not receive any order intimating him of his acceptance of his resignation.

He therefore humbly begs your Honour to accept his humble resignation and to order the authorities concerned to grant him Ropes three from the Charity Fund.
For this act of kindness, he and his family will be ever praying for your Honour's long life and happiness.

I am your most humble servant
